Bells, Bells, What did you say ?

Larghetto. ♩ = 96.

ROBERT TURNER.

BELLS, BELLS, WHAT DID YOU SAY?

Bells, Bells, what did you say,
Ringing so sweet at break of day?

“We were pealing o'er vale and hill,
Glory to God, to men good will!
Rejoice, Rejoice! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!
Rejoice, Rejoice! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!”

Stars, Stars, what did you see,
Shining on high so silently?

“We were watching the day star rise,
Herald of dawn to longing eyes;
Hail beauteous light! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!
Hail beauteous light! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!”

Wind, wind, what did you hear,
Through the universe soft and clear?

“Melodies never heard before,
Wafted thro' Heaven's open door;
Peace on the earth, this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!
Peace on earth this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!”

Love, Love, what did you give?

“A little child on earth to live;
With hands outstretched the world to win,
Open your hearts to let him in!
Rejoice, Rejoice! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!
Rejoice, Rejoice! this blessed morn,
Jesus Incarnate now is born!”
