

When you come home again. ^{from voice choir}

Song and Chorus.

Words by Corporal C.O. Erwood (Anzac).

Music by H. A. Donald.

Maestoso.

Moderato.

1. When you come home a - -
2. When you come home a - -
3. When you come home a - -

- gain, lad, with peace from o'er the seas, There'll be
- gain, lad, and tell of those who fell, Our
- gain, lad, from that far dis-tant shore, When

Copies 6d., of H. A. Donald, 24, Lancaster Rd., Forest Gate, London, E.
String band parts may be had.

sun - shine on the plain, lad, and blos - soms on the tears will fall like rain, lad, for those we lov'd so you have won your fame, lad, with those who fight no trees, well, more. The birds will sing a wel - come, in that Though we strive to hide the sor - row that would There'll be sor - row 'midst our glad - ness and the old fa - mil - iar strain. rit.

 cause you grief and pain. And our hearts will beat with tri - umph won by pain. But we'll not for - get the
 And the world will hail you glad - - ness, when you come home a - gain. a tempo.

 oth - - ers, when you come home a - gain.
 vic - - tors, when you come home a - gain.

CHORUS. Slower—slightly increasing the time.

p We have mingled our tears with our joy and our fears, And our hearts have nigh bro - ken in twain, ten. But we hope and we pray that our boys far a-way May re -

- turn to their Home - land a - - gain. But we hope and we pray that our boys far a-way May re-

cres. f rit. ff

Ped. * Ped. *

Slow.

- turn to their Home-land a - - gain.

Slow. Verses 1 & 2, D.C.

Ped.

3rd verse.

- - gain.

ff Faster. ff

Ped.

Small notes for the Solo voice only.